WESTERN PIEDMONT YOUTH SYMPHONY

Payment

Payment is expected by the second rehearsal, but payment plans are available, if needed. Tuition can be brought to rehearsal or paid online. Annual tuition is $150. Tuition does not include admission price for guests to hear your performances. Admission to WPYS concerts generally costs $5 per person, payable at the door, and helps support the WPYS program.

Participation

All musicians will audition for chair placement each year. Other opportunities for chair placement will be available throughout the season. Responsibilities as a member of the Western Piedmont Youth Symphony include the expectation that you will attend all rehearsals, perform in two youth symphony concerts per season, serve as a volunteer for at least one Western Piedmont Symphony concert per season. On-time arrival at all events is expected. Professional behavior is expected at all times. Failure to meet expectations could result in dismissal, without refund.

COVID Protocols

Here are the parameters we will work inside of this fall:

- Everyone will wear a mask at all times while in the building
- There will be no sharing of equipment, ie, stands, instruments, chairs, etc.
- Ventilation systems will remain on during rehearsal times to constantly refresh air
- Wind players will use bell covers while playing, when recommended by current guidelines.

Volunteering at Our Professional Concerts

WPYS members are expected to volunteer for two of our professional concerts per season, where they will have the ability to meet and assist many of the patrons who help support the WPYS program; and to hear performances from artists who once started out as young musicians themselves! You will select the performances during registration.

Volunteers should arrive by 6 p.m. in black pants/skirt + black shirt/blouse and check in with the house manager in the lobby of the auditorium. Doors open to the public at 6:30 p.m., so arriving on time gives us about 30 minutes to go over procedures. Once the performance begins at 7:30 p.m., you are encouraged to stay and enjoy the concert. Your admission is complimentary. If you have a parent or other person driving you to volunteer, we will happily offer one additional complimentary ticket, as well, if they would like to stay and enjoy the performance with you. In order to take advantage of the complimentary ticket offer, please advise WPS staff the week before the concert.

While we make every attempt to send out reminders to you about the dates you've volunteered, this is ultimately your responsibility. WPS staff depends on volunteers, so if you've signed up and can't make it, ask a fellow WPYS member to sub for you.

WPYS Concert Nights

On concert nights, there will be a 5 p.m. rehearsal prior to your 7 p.m. performance – both will be held in Drendel Auditorium at the SALT Block. We will break for dinner between the rehearsal & performance. Concert dress for youth symphony musicians is black pants/skirt + black shirt/blouse. Final details will be given closer to concert dates.

Tuition does not include admission price for guests to hear your performances, so please tell your attendees to plan accordingly. Admission to WPYS concerts costs $5 per person, and helps support the WPYS orchestra program. Tickets are available at the door and starting this year, you may also buy tickets ahead of time online or at the box office!

We look forward to having you with us this season!

I understand my responsibilities as a member of WPYS, including the expectation that I will attend all rehearsals, perform in two youth symphony concerts per season, serve as a volunteer for at least two Western Piedmont Symphony concerts per season, and arrive to all of these engagements on time. When I volunteer at WPS concerts, I will have the opportunity to attend the performance for free, upon completing my service time.
