CATHY LAIL, FACILITATOR

A twenty-six year veteran teacher, Cathy Lail has taught in both Catawba County Schools and Hickory Public Schools respectively. For the past 16 years, Cathy has taught English and science in grades 7 and 8 at Northview Middle School. A graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne University, Cathy received a Bachelor of Arts degree in middle grades education with concentrations in English, Spanish, and science. As part of her teaching responsibilities, Cathy has chaired committees on curriculum pacing and planning, and has a thorough knowledge and understanding of competency-based curriculum. In addition she has served on the school Leadership Team, as a mentor teacher, play director, and cross-country coach. Currently she serves as a highly engaged board member of the Western Piedmont Symphony and as co-chair of the Education Committee, which oversees the Western Piedmont Youth Symphony and program book development for the in-school outreach concerts. Cathy has been a member of the vocal and handbell choirs at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. She is married to David Lail, music teacher at Jenkins and Oakwood Elementary Schools, and also organist at Holy Trinity. Cathy and David are the proud parents of Daniel and Patrick, both of whom are excellent musicians.
