Payment

Payment is expected at the time of enrollment, but payment plans are available, if needed. Annual tuition is $100. Tuition does not include admission price for guests to hear your performances. Admission to WPYS concerts generally costs $5 per person, payable at the door, and helps support the WPYS orchestra program.

Participation

Everyone must audition, even returning members. Mr. Wortman reserves the right to re-evaluate chairs mid-season, as well. Responsibilities as a member of the Western Piedmont Youth Symphony include the expectation that you will attend all rehearsals, perform in two youth symphony concerts per season, serve as a volunteer for at least two Western Piedmont Symphony (orchestra or resident string quartet) concerts per season, and arrive to all of these engagements on time. WPYS members are expected to be respectful to each other, to their music director, and to WPS staff, volunteers, and patrons. Failure to meet expectations could result in dismissal, without refund. We are happy to report this is generally not a problem! We are proud of the accomplishments of so many of our past and current WPYS members.

Volunteering at Our Professional Concerts

WPYS members are expected to serve as volunteers for at least 2 of our professional concerts per season, where they will have the ability to meet and assist many of the patrons who help support the WPYS program; and to hear performances from artists who once started out as young musicians themselves! It's a valuable opportunity and we expect nearly everyone to participate, but exceptions can be made for WPYS members with extenuating circumstances (just let us know). You will select the 2 performances via the Google Form used during registration.

Volunteers should arrive by 6 p.m. in black pants/skirt + white shirt/blouse and check in with WPS staff in the lobby of the auditorium. Doors open to the public at 6:30 p.m., so arriving on time gives us about 30 minutes to go over procedures. Volunteers can greet patrons, pass out program books, tear ticket stubs, hold doors, and help patrons find their seats, depending on preferences/abilities. Once the performance begins at 7:30 p.m., we ask that you stay to enjoy and experience a professional orchestra performance. Your admission is complimentary. If you have a parent or other person driving you to volunteer, we will happily offer one additional complimentary ticket, as well, if they would like to stay and enjoy the performance with you. In order to take advantage of the complimentary ticket offer, please advise WPS staff upon check-in.

While we make every attempt to send out reminders to you about the dates you've volunteered, this is ultimately your responsibility. WPS staff depends on volunteers, so if you've signed up and can't make it, ask a fellow WPYS member to sub for you. Dependability matters.

Youth Symphony Concert Nights

This season you will have a 5 p.m. rehearsal prior to your 7 p.m. performance on concert nights – both will be held in Drendel Auditorium on the SALT Block. Generally we break for dinner between the rehearsal & performance. Concert dress for youth symphony musicians is generally the same as what you would wear to volunteer (see guidelines in volunteerism section above). Final details will be given closer to concert dates.

Tuition does not include admission price for guests to hear your performances, so please tell your attendees to plan accordingly. Admission to WPYS concerts generally costs $5 per person, payable at the door, and helps support the WPYS orchestra program.

Following the concerts, we have a free reception for you and all concert-goers. Each family will be asked to bring one appetizer or dessert to share, and to drop it off in the reception area. Final details will be given closer to concert dates... We look forward to having you with us this season!

I understand my responsibilities as a member of the Western Piedmont Youth Symphony include the expectation that I will attend all rehearsals, perform in two youth symphony concerts per season, serve as a volunteer for at least two Western Piedmont Symphony concerts per season, and arrive to all of these engagements on time. When I volunteer at WPS concerts, I will have the opportunity to attend the performance for free, upon completing my service time.
